ENGLISH PROTEST PROBABLE 'FEELER

England Has Taken Note of the Attitude of Senators on Canal Bates.

Canal Rates.

Mr. A. Mitchell linnes, charge d'affaires of the British Embessy, again called at the Bate Department pesterday afternoon, but withour bringing the expected lengthy statement of Great British's reason for protesting against Pansama Canal legislation. Mr. Innes had a long talk with Chardler Abderson, counselor of the State Department, but it was stated, nothing authoritative or conclusive was said or done in the conference.

The opinion is growing here, in view of the leng delay in the arrival of the British statement that the English government has taken note of the debate in the Senate which is proceeding as a result of the state of the British statement that the English government has taken note of the debate in the Senate which is proceeding as a result of the British pressure. According to this surmise, the formal statement of protest is to be modified in the light of what has been said on both sides of the question in the United States Senate. It has been subgested further that the brief protest which Mr. Innes communicated to the State Department two weeks ago was merely a feeder, that the British government wished to sound public opinion on the matter of granting free tolls to American versus that the British government wished to sound public opinion on the matter of granting free tolls to American versus that the Great Britain will see fit to withdraw her objections to praposed legislation in view of the sectemined stand which some Senators have taken in favor of the right of the United States to grant free une of the Canal to American versus.
